

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

Pray for our Hospital Chaplains

Friends

As you are probably aware, ABC Compass will broadcast the first episode of its 8 part series Hospital Chaplains on Sunday 15 April at 6.30pm on ABC 1. Further episodes will be broadcast weekly on Sundays at 6.30pm with a repeat on Tuesdays at 1.30pm, both on ABC 1.

I understand that the first episode will include yours truly and a very interesting encounter I had with a patient named Neville who had been told that he was dying from lung cancer and wanted to get right with God before he died. It will be interesting, of course, to see what the editors have done with the material! Throughout the series, I understand that there will be at least 2 further stories about patients that I have ministered with.

There will also be Muslim and Buddhist chaplains from Liverpool and other chaplains from Royal North Shore and St Vincent's Hospitals in the series. So no doubt there will be different perspectives on chaplaincy portrayed. I hope that I have been able to demonstrate a ministry that is caring and sensitive while clearly evangelical, but I have no control over the editing!

It would be good to pray that any publicity generated by the series will be helpful for chaplaincy and the gospel.

Information about the series, a preview and commenting is available on the Compass web site.

Graham
