

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

Monthly Men's Breakfast: Aisen and Bart have been discussing the possibility of a regular men's group meeting on the first Saturday of each month. We thought we would give it a try on Saturday, August 4th, from 7am to 9am.

Here's the format: After we will cook ourselves a BBQ breakfast (eggs, bacon, sausages...) we will hear a short talk from Aisen. Then, we will break up into language-specific table groups to discuss the topic and pray for each other.

The talks will be based on a book by Robert Hicks entitled "Uneasy manhood". We hope a good number of our men can make it!

Can you see a better future? Every day, millions of children go hungry. Hunger takes away hope. It's hard to see the future when you're trying to get through the day on an empty stomach. It means children don't grow the way they should. It means they might have to drop out of school to help their families. It means they don't get the chance in life that they deserve. You can help communities find better ways to grow crops. You can help teach parents about good nutrition. You can help people learn new ways to earn money so they can buy food. Do something real to fight hunger.

Let's support our youth in this fantastic opportunity to become more aware of the issues of global poverty and injustice.

Prayer Points:

Pray for our team as they return from China (Stephen Mayhew, Edwina Chai, Michelle Lee and Michael Lin). Pray that the work they did teaching English in Du'an will have an eternal impact.

Pray for Kian Holik and his team that has just returned from Yogyakarta, Indonesia. Kian writes: Please pray for the on-going effects of the mission as part of Credo Mid-Year Evangelism. We praise God for all the different activities that the team has been involved with, including Bible studies, ministry sharings, and a student camp. Praise God that I preached and at least 10 high schoolers in this camp committed or recommitted their lives to Jesus! (Some of the team's first hand experiences can be found at : credoindo2012.wordpress.com)

Pray for our first Men's Breakfast on August 4th.

Pray for the Youth Group as they raise funds in preparation for the 40-hour famine. May they see with new eyes the issues of global poverty and injustice.

Pray for the Missions Committee as they meet on next Sunday morning to discuss the upcoming Missions Month in October.
