

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

Pray for healthy marriages for Chinese Evangelists

It's an all too familiar story: a brave evangelist travels through China, sharing Christ wherever the Spirit leads him. Harassment, mistreatment and arrest do not stop him from sharing the Gospel. However, we often do not hear about his lonely wife or his children who are practically growing up without a father. Over the years, Open Doors has invested a great deal in Christian marriages in China by offering a marriage course that house church networks could easily duplicate and sustain on their own.

"Many children of Christian evangelists resented the Christian faith", says brother Enlai*, a Christian who together with his wife Fang taught the marriage course for years. "The Christians considered their sacrifice as spiritual. Many, if not most, Chinese churches didn't consider marriage training a priority, or even a need, to the church."

"My life and relationship with my wife were totally turned around as a result of attending Open Doors' Marriage Enrichment course", says one lay church leader. "When I look back, I can see that I was totally ignorant about what marriage is all about. No one had taught me anything about it. I used to hurt my wife so much whenever I ignored her and didn't care for her. I just did not know how to speak to my wife. Growing up, I had never heard my father say anything to my mother except when he scolded and quarrelled with her."

The marriage course has been taught to several thousand Christians. "Marriage is the closest relationship we have on the earth", says Enlai. "It is an expression of the love of God. In the journey of marriage, we are forced to face ourselves truly. If I say I love God but I keep on having poor relationship with my wife, I am just a hypocrite. Without a healthy marriage, it is hard for co-workers to serve in a sustainable manner."
