

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

Preaching program

"Come, Follow Me!"

As the title implies, this new sermon series will focus on what it means to be Christ's disciples, but particularly from an emotional perspective. Through these studies, we will begin to introduce some of the concepts that we will study in greater depth during our church camp in September.

Sermon Series: Come, Follow Me!

Aug 3	Feeling Fear and Doubt	Isaiah 43:1-3a Matthew 14:22-33
Aug 10	Feeling Offended	Isaiah 51:7-8 Matthew 15:1-20

Today is the last day to fill in your application forms and pay your fees for the "Emotionally Healthy Church" camp.

Pray for Kian Holik at UTS

FOCUS CAMP 2014: Thank God that our annual joined camp with Macquarie University had gone well. Praise God for 55 people came to the camp and we estimate 10 of them are not Christians, and two came to believe in Jesus as their personal saviour and Lord in this camp! Hallelujah!

Thank God for friendly winter weather during the camp. Pastor John Gurusamy preached from Genesis 1-3, talking about what it means to be humans. Praise to God for third year working together with FOCUS Macquarie University in this camp. All the leaders came to serve in different ways: cooking, leading praises, leading small groups discussions, etc.

Thank God that both UTS and Macquarie University FOCUS staff were given opportunities and strengths from God to teach at seminars, serve the students in different practical ways, like cooking, managing this camp, etc.

Please pray that our ministry can bring glory to Jesus and people can praise Him especially non-Christian students. (The photo on the right is when FOCUS staff were leading Boys-Girls Relationship Seminar.)
